Guiding boards. Growing business.

A close-up photograph of a hand holding a vintage-style compass. The compass is silver and black, with a white face and a red needle. The hand is positioned over a blue map, which is being held by another person's hands. The background is blurred, showing more of the map and the hands of the other person.

EDUCATE

Scaling your Business through a
High-Performance Board Workshop

We understand that as a CEO, entrepreneur or business founder, you want to:

Grow your business

Create a more valuable company

Understand how a board can support you to maximise value

Transition to the next generation

Over 2000+

entrepreneurs, business founders and family business executives around the world have benefited from attending Sirdar's Scaling your Business through a High-Performance Board Workshop which empowers participants to implement a high-performance board that creates value for your business.

Join our one-day online workshop to:

- Understand why and how your business will get value from having a board
- Discover the critical difference between shareholder, director and manager – and how keeping the roles distinct grows business value and profitability
- Recognise the steps to follow to implement a board and to get the results that you are looking for
- Discover the Sirdar Governance Compass and be able to use it as a practical methodology to:
 - Know what your board should be talking about
 - Know what the board should be giving you
- Understand why a group of great directors does not guarantee a high-performing board – and explore how to avert this challenge
